adoption of web3 infrastructure and applications, mainly as we aim to bridge the gap between global investors, developers, and Asia's rapidly expanding Web3 market. By leveraging ADGM's advanced regulatory framework, we're equipped to support innovative Web3 projects that are eager to build on Kaia, the robust Layer 1 blockchain formed through the merger of Klaytn and Finschia — two blockchains originally initiated by IT giants Kakao and LINE.

“I am excited to announce that the registration of Kaia DLT Foundation in ADGM, which is the final and most important milestone before the launch of the Kaia mainnet, has been completed,” said Dr. Sam Seo, Chairman of Kaia DLT Foundation. “With all preparations complete, we are now ready to initiate the process to launch the Kaia mainnet.”

As we settle into our new base in Abu Dhabi, we're also eager to connect with global partners and explore opportunities to expand the Kaia ecosystem further. With over 420 decentralized applications (DApps) and a potential

About Kaia DLT Foundation

The Kaia DLT Foundation, based in Abu Dhabi, was established in 2024 to expand the ecosystem of Kaia, a global Layer 1 blockchain platform. We drive the adoption and development of new technologies to ensure that Kaia fulfills its role as an accessible, transparent, and sustainable blockchain platform for developers and users alike, and facilitate decision-making to ensure that the ecosystem continues to expand optimally in the rapidly changing blockchain landscape.
