Kaia Square will also be going live together with the mainnet. Beyond the features currently available on Klaytn Square, Kaia Square will also support Public Delegation, a staking feature that will allow you to delegate your KAIA to your preferred validator, adding to their voting power and gaining your proportionate share of block rewards. A guide to Kaia Square will be available at a later date.

Post-mainnet launch: KLAY to KAIA ticker update

Due to varying lead times required by the different exchanges, KAIA will temporarily continue to use KLAY as its ticker at launch. Post-launch, each exchange will update the ticker from KLAY to KAIA on their own timeline.

There's a lot of moving parts to make the mainnet launch happen smoothly
